

The following are examples of the 136 images from 15 middle schools that were presented for two weeks at the Pepco Edison Place Gallery in Washington, DC as part of the 3rd annual district-wide Everyday DC exhibition. The images were taken as a result of a multi-week photojournalism unit supported by Pulitzer Center and the visual arts team at DC Public Schools. Here are blog posts highlighting more examples from the 2018 and 2017 exhibitions.

1. Maxwell School

Dump Truck

“A dump truck in an alley backing up.”-November 30, 2018

Oyster-Adams Bilingual School

2. McKenzie Haynes

Lonely Home

"These houses are getting torn down and these are the last on our block."

Excel Academy

3. Phillip Crowell
As Close As Me

"No one could get as close as me to the Ducks at the Duck Pond, I laid down, and waited for the ducks calmly and quietly, until they all started to swim towards me. I'm King of the Ducks!"-October 2018

Jefferson Academy Middle School/

Pulitzer Center

4. Quinn McGovern

Felipe

"This is a boy lying on the field of Alice Deal Middle School to enjoy the last seconds of the summer sun."-October 2018

Alice Deal Middle School

5. Catie Guire

Rainbow

"Rain is not just gloomy."-December 2018

Eliot-Hine Middle School

Pulitzer Center

6. Felix Ulmanu

My Father

"As my father and I walk uptown, I spot a neon sign in a shop window and I tell my dad to stop. We keep talking and in the moment, he laughs. I just click the shutter."

Hardy Middle School

Pulitzer Center

7. Jennifer Romero and Alba Santos

Shadows

"This is a picture of Alba playing with shadows created from the window."-December 19, 2018
MacFarland Middle School

8. Kevin Silva-Bueso

Untitled

January 4, 2019

Cardozo Education Campus

Pulitzer Center

9. Taimia Ivey

#Oops

"She wasn't ready. Still pretty."

Sousa Middle School

Pulitzer Center

10. Justin Scofield

Up in the Sky

"I wanted to show our playground at CHM@L the same way we see it when we play on it everyday. This is the view we see as we climb higher and higher on the equipment."

-November 8, 2018

Capitol Hill Montessori

Pulitzer Center

11. Laura-Esly Codija

Neighborhood Door

"This is door with a wreath, taken November, 2018. this shows the festive spirit of my neighborhood. despite the stigma with the SouthEast being run down, we still make an effort to make our neighborhood look welcoming and fun! " November 2018

School Without Walls @ Francis Stevens

Pulitzer Center

12. Saniya Motley and Kristen Murphy

Untitled

"A girl playing on the playground at Whittier. This picture shows how fun Whittier is and how happy people are when they come to Whittier" - January 10, 2019

Whittier Education Campus

Pulitzer Center

13. Nijaia Jenkins

My Eyes Are Watching

"I love to take detail photos because they frame the object you want to focus on. In taking photos of my eye, I see all the details that exist within the eye and the lighting of the camera serves as a reflection." - October 23, 2018

Kramer Middle School

14. Jalirah James

"This is a picture of Joiaea and she is sitting on the steps of Hart Middle School. This is my everyday D.C. because it capture a moment of the day at Hart Middle School"-January 25, 2019

Charles Hart Middle School

Pulitzer Center

15. Keith Petty

Leaping for the weekend

"Friends: Trae-von, Dion & Edward leaping into the weekend in front of JMS."

January 10, 2019

Johnson Middle School

